Taking the Worst of the Worst Off the Streets

Pacific Southwest Regional Fugitive Task Force (PSWRFTF) On June 11, 2006 Delmar Rider was arrested in Earp, CA by members of PSWRFTF and personnel from the California Department of Corrections & Rehabilitation - Office of Corrections Safety (CDCR). CDCR wanted Rider, a target during Operation FALCON II, for Parole Violation on an original conviction of Oral Copulation of a Minor. Rider absconded more than twenty years ago. Following a two month investigation, PSWRFTF investigators discovered Rider assumed a new identity and took up residence in Earp. Investigators established surveillance at a target location in that city, observed Rider, and safely took him into custody.	 Delmar Rider Wanted for: Parole Violation
New York/New Jersey Regional Fugitive Task Force (NY/NJ RFTF) On 06/08/06 Diqvan Chambers, a documented member of the Crips gang, was arrested in Greenville, SC by deputy US marshals (DUSMs) from the District of South Carolina (D/SC) and homicide detectives from the Suffolk County (NY) PD. The Suffolk County PD wanted Chambers as a person of interest in the case of a Farmingdale, NY shooting death occurring during a drug-related home invasion in August 2005. During the incident, a resident of the home received a fatal gunshot wound and Chambers' associate suffered a non-fatal wound. NY/NJ RFTF investigators, with critical assistance from the Technical Operations Group (TOG), developed information indicating Chambers fled to the Greenville area. NY/NJ RFTF investigators forwarded this information to D/SC, which immediately dispatched DUSMs to Chambers' suspected location. DUSMs later observed Chambers driving a stolen vehicle, conducted a traffic stop, and safely took him into custody. Chambers later made a statement regarding his involvement in the shooting incident, and awaits extradition to New York to face a Felony Murder charge.	Crips Gang Member  Diqvan Chambers Wanted for: Felony Murder
Great Lakes Regional Fugitive Task Force (GLRFTF) On June 08, 2006 Jose Luis Ramirez-Cendejas was arrested in Addison, IL by members of the GLRFTF. Authorities in Mexico wanted Ramirez-Cendejas for Murder. In late December 2004 Ramirez-Cendejas, along with his brother, allegedly shot their sister and her boyfriend following an altercation. The male victim died as a result of the shooting, while the sister received serious injuries which now confine her to a wheelchair. Following the shooting, Ramirez-Cendejas fled to the United States. GLRFTF investigators received information indicating Ramirez-Cendejas moved into the Chicago, IL area. In late May 2006, GLRFTF personnel received a formal request for assistance in arresting Ramirez-Cendejas from the Mexican government. Acting on a Provisional Arrest Warrant issued for Ramirez-Cendejas' arrest, GLRFTF personnel responded to his residence and safely took him into custody. Ramirez-Cendejas currently awaits extradition to Mexico.	 Jose Luis Ramirez-Cendejas Wanted for: Homicide

Southeast Regional Fugitive Task Force (SERFTF) On May 31, 2006 Jarmaal Howard was arrested in southeastern Atlanta, GA by members of SERFTF and investigators from the Fugitive Squad of the Fulton County (GA) Sheriff's Office. An indictment in Fulton County charged Howard with Murder, Felony Murder, Aggravated Assault, Possession of a Firearm During the Commission of a Felony, and Possession of cocaine with Intent to Distribute. SERFTF personnel developed information on several possible locations for Howard in and around the Atlanta area, as well as for a vehicle type likely being used by him. While investigating one of these potential target locations, investigators observed Howard and several other males exiting an apartment complex. Investigators established surveillance in the area, and after questioning a female who later left the same apartment, made entry and safely took Howard into custody.	 Jarmaal Howard Wanted for: Murder & Aggravated Assault
Capital Area Regional Fugitive Task Force (CARFTF) On June 14, 2006 Tyrone Edward Ferguson was arrested in Accokeek, MD by members of CARFTF. Authorities in Prince George's County (MD) wanted Ferguson for allegedly physically and sexually assaulting a three year old child. The victim's mother suspected the abuse and took the child to medical personnel, who confirmed injuries consistent with sexual assault. CARFTF developed information on Ferguson's location in Accokeek, responded to that location, and safely took him into custody.	 Tyrone Ferguson Wanted for: Sexual Assault
